

Oaks Country Club

Pool Rules

1. All persons (children and adults) MUST SIGN IN upon entering the pool area. Please write down an emergency phone number on the Pool Sign-In Log when you sign in.
2. Parents or guardians will NOT leave a small child unattended. If for some reason a parent must leave a child unattended for a brief period of time, the lifeguard MUST be notified.
3. NO children under twelve years of age will be admitted unless supervised by a responsible person at least sixteen years of age. The lifeguards may, at their discretion, restrict small children and non-swimmers from the deep end of the pool.
4. SHOWER before entering pool.
5. Lifeguard instructions MUST be followed at all times. Parents, adults, and other members who have a concern regarding lifeguard decisions should notify the pool manager, Matt Crawford.
6. ABSOLUTELY NO RUNNING!
7. NO dunking, pushing, spitting, or horseplay-which can be defined as anything dangerous or annoying to other bathers.
8. NO alcoholic beverages in the pool area.
9. NO glass containers in the pool area.
10. NO NOT sit, stand, pull, or hang onto the rope across the deep end of the pool area.
11. NO ONE is permitted in the pool with open wounds, sores, or bandages.
12. NO ball playing or floats when the pool is crowded.
13. DO NOT remove cushions from the pool furniture or move any deck equipment.
14. PARENTS WILL be held responsible for the actions of their child/children, whether present or not.
15. Baby-sitters of the Oaks Country Club members may be granted access to the pool area. Baby-sitters arriving, who not members of the club, must have a baby-sitter pass card in their possession in order to enter the pool area with the child/children they are babysitting.
16. ANY person or persons who persist to disobey the rules will be ejected from the pool; two warnings and you ARE OUT for the day. The lifeguards have been instructed to strictly enforce ALL rules in order to promote a safe water environment for everyone.
17. Please dispose all trash around your person and pickup after yourself and those in your party BEFORE exiting the pool area.
18. NO pets allowed.
19. Smokers MUST USE ASHTRAYS!
